

LIBRARY BUZZ

AUGUST 2018

Welcome to our school library! We are very excited to share our school year with you. At Egly STEAM Academy, our students are challenged academically to reach their full potential in becoming successful 21st century individuals and life-long readers. We will be focusing on information literacy, digital citizenship, databases, research, geography, and reading e-books and print books.

Rules for Borrowing:

- Each class has a regularly scheduled, weekly library class.
- Students in grades 1st through 5th may borrow two books per week.
- All books are due ONE WEEK from checkout.
- Egly Library has a “HOLD” policy. Students who forget their books on their regularly scheduled day may choose a book to be held overnight. The book that is being held should be checked out the next morning. Books are only held overnight.

This month's activities:

- Orientation/rules of library.
- Receive instruction on spine labels.
- Receive instruction on the 4 areas of library.
- Receive instruction/review of the AR program.
- Receive instruction on how to care for books.
- Receive instruction of distinction of fiction/non-fiction books.
